

REA FEELS FINE IN MORNING NOW

Is Ready for Hearty Breakfast and Big Day's Work Every Day Since Taking Tanlac.

"Well, sir, I have traveled the Tanlac route now and it has carried me right back to health and strength," is the characteristic statement of Samuel Rea, a well-known carpenter, living at 1408 B street northeast, Washington, D. C. "Being spring of the year my energy all left me and I had that familiar tired feeling all the time. I would get up mornings feeling all played out and dreading the day's work ahead. I had regular headaches and pains in the back, and my appetite went back on me. This partly explains what a miserable fix I was in, but my main trouble was indigestion and Tanlac has done a hundred percent job on that."

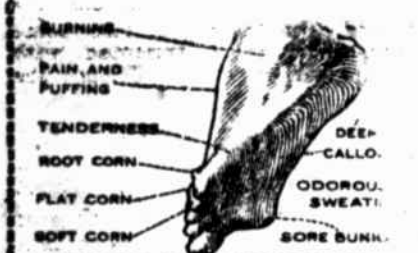

"I simply had to force down what little I did eat and even then I had a feeling like lead in the pit of my stomach. Gas would form on my stomach and keep me feeling all stuffed up, drowsy and uncomfortable for hours after eating. Tanlac was the very medicine I needed. It whipped my appetite into line at once and has fixed my stomach up so I can eat my three square meals every day and not feel a touch of indigestion."

"I now get out of bed mornings thoroughly rested and refreshed, ready for a hearty breakfast and a good day's work. I have no more headaches or any other troubles. Tanlac simply can't be beat for putting a person in first class shape. It has built me up until I am feeling just right in every way. All this has come from three bottles of Tanlac and I must say I got plenty for my money, more than I ever did before. A medicine that will make weak folks out of sick ones is worth any price and that is just the way I look upon Tanlac."

There are thousands of people who complain of being nervous and run-down. They are not sick exactly, but feel tired out and good for nothing most of the time. What they need is something to build them up and throw off the symptoms of this weakened, debilitated condition.

The system, besides being purified by Tanlac, is toned up and fortified, as the medicine, aside from assisting the blood, reinvigorates the constitution, overcoming, as it seems to quickly do, nervousness, indigestion, non-assimilation of the food, headaches, backache, kidney complaint, general debility and many other ailments that are so common to the thousands of half-sick, depressed men and women.

Tanlac is sold in Washington by Peoples Drug Stores and all leading druggists.

at the Hotel Astor in New York, where Mr. Ellis is attending a meeting of the American Bar Association.

The marriage of Miss Elvira Valletta Holbrook and Ernest J. Elwood, Jr., took place today at noon at the Ninth Street Christian Church.

The bride who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood L. Holbrook, was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Grace E. Holbrook as maid of honor. Walter McCurdy acted as best man. The ushers were Linwood L. Holbrook, Jr., brother of the bride, and F. Leslie Wight, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. The marriage ceremony was read by the Rev. J. Boyd Jones, acting pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Church.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling gown of navy blue canton crepe with fagoting trimming, with a dark blue hat to match. Her hair was styled in a fetching touch of white through the use of canton crepe as a trimming. She carried a bride's bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid wore a blue tulle dress with blue georgette hat matching her gown. She carried a huge bouquet of sweetpeas.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. Preceding the ceremony Prof. Joseph Harrison, organist of the church, and William E. Braithwaite gave a musical program. Mr. Braithwaite sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly."

Following the wedding a brief reception was held in the church parlors after which the newly weds took an early afternoon train for Atlantic City where they will spend their honeymoon.

They will be at home after June 15 at their home, 1408 Massachusetts avenue southeast, which the bridegroom has made completely ready for their occupancy.

Quite a number of out-of-town guests were in attendance at the wedding. The groom is associated with the new service of David Lawrence, Inc.

Mrs. Marietta Colhoun Johnson, who has been the guest of her cousin, the Misses Colhoun, for the past month, has gone to New York to visit her niece, Miss Beale Bordley, before returning to her home in St. Joseph, Mo. Miss Bordley, who is preparing for a stage career, has a voice of unusual range and beauty. She will go abroad to finish her studies before making her debut in grand opera.

Mrs. Raymond T. Baker and her young son, Alfred Gwynne Vandenberg, will go from the Ambassador Hotel, New York, to Holmdel, N. J., her country place at Lenox, Mass., as soon as the boy, who has been critically ill, is able to be moved. His condition is greatly improved.

Mrs. Elton Turner has closed her apartment at Wardman Park Hotel and gone to New York for an extended stay.

The Friday Evening Drama Talk at the Woman's National Foundation this week will be given by Chester Clapp, who will speak on "The Art of the Motion Picture."

Mr. Clapp is a firm believer in the future of the motion picture as an art, has been closely associated for a number of years with David W. Griffith in his big productions, besides having written and directed numbers of photographs of his own.

Mrs. Forrest will provide at the meeting on Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Foundation, and will introduce Mr. Clapp.

Major and Mrs. Paul C. Paschal, who have been living at 2310 Ashmead place, have gone to Wardman Park Hotel to remain indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lee, of New York, are in Washington for a short time and are stopping at the Shoreham.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Ellis, of Washington, are passing a few days
